STAT

Of course, I remember you very well from the time when we were all in the [redacted] Since then you have certainly been around a lot, but, as I have never gone back to Central America since 1933, there was no opportunity for us to see each other.

STAT

I am enclosing herewith a Form 57 for application for employment in this Agency. It is self-explanatory, and, if you will fill it out and return it to me, I shall shop it around through our offices to find out whether there is a place for you. I can't promise anything yet, but I assure you your application will be looked on with a very favorable eye.

With best wishes, please believe me,

Sincerely,
